hi guys, have you heard of FrancSwiss???. or has anybody got into it?? its an On-line Financial Instrument (usd curreny) who claims a daily profit of 4.5%, minimum investment USD1k, with a lock-in period of 60 calendar days....its quite attractive dba?

I just heard it from a friend but i dont know anything about it....so, being a part of AT family i just want to share this one to get more informations on the legitimacy of the institution particularly the risks involved...just in case meron dito sa AT community na existing investor who is willing to share everything...tnx

If its to good to be true, IT IS as far as the financial markets is concerned. There is no such thing as GUARANTEED in the financial markets. The mere mention of that word raises skepticisms already.

That's right. There are no guarantees in the financial world. Especially in forex. Ang likot sobra ng mga yan, isang segundo, kita ka na, isa pang segundo, laki na ang lugi. Personally di ko kaya sikmurahin ang galaw ng forex. lalo na leveraged pa ang pera mo.

pards, alam mo ba yung amway or quixtar? kung idiots tawag mo sa mga taong mag lagay ng $1k sa francswiss, ano kaya magiging tawag mo sa amway/quixtar members? as in unti unting sisimutin ang savings mo ng hindi mo nalalaman...buy your own product eh, you'll earn from your own purchases daw :D

no offense kung meron amway/quixtar members dito ;)
