Hello Guys,

Just wondering, how come I'm no longer receiving emails and newsletter from Absolute traders, also I'm not sure if there was any CAF that was held the past months, i didn't receive any invitation if there was.

Thanks

People, I'm sure many of those who attended last night's CAF was quite happy to be able to enter the trading floor of the PSE. We'd like to hear from you on how we can further improve our CAF in the future.

Kindly post your suggestions here!:)
